FEATURES

With the look of a stone table but with the lighter notes of glass, the Cadeo dining table looks amazing. Exclusive to Housing Units, this table has two 'U' shaped aluminium legs which support the glass table top which, although looks like a piece of stone, is actually glass with a stone effect finish applied to the surface. The benches have been tastefully upholstered in a dark grey fabric which is reminiscent of an animal hide but that is extremely stylish wherever it is used. Both benches have brushed metal 'U' shaped legs in aluminium and deep padded backrest as well as stitching detail which runs vertically and makes the perfect accompaniment to any dining table.
